Water Baptism

April 28 & 29 | After Each Service | Jr. High Worship Center

Are you a new Christian? Water Baptism is a great step in your new walk with Christ. It's a public profession of your faith. Baptism is a public profession of your faith and you can take this important next step next week after any service.

Redeemer College Interest Meeting

Thursday, April 26 | 7 pm | Redeemer Café

If you are considering college and have a passion for ministry, Redeemer College could be the perfect fit with a solid academic foundation and hands-on ministry training. Through our partnership with accredited Southeastern University, you have three degree programs to choose. Learn more and ask questions at this meeting. redeemercollege.com

National Day of Prayer

First Wednesday | May 2 | 7:15 pm

Pray with your church family and others around the nation to intercede for our country! On this special First Wednesday, we will stand in powerful unity with other believers as we recharge, connect and celebrate. On Thursday, May 3, from 9 am to 4 pm, the worship center will be open and we invite you to come and pray any time throughout the day for our nation!

Your Giving

Your generous giving has blessed thousands with the love of Christ! There are several easy ways to keep it up: giving kiosks, offering containers during service, and offering boxes on the walls. You can also give online at church-redeemer.org/Give.
